THE BANK STATEMENT.

The large loss of legal tenders, below recorded. is indicative of a healthier and stronger use for money. Business is improving. A loss in New York means a gain elsewhere, and that gain must in the logical course of events bring back to metropolitan corrers additional wealth. The banks now hold in lawful money $9,158,500 above the legal requirement, which is $5,585,500 less than so held last week. The following is a comparison of the averages for the past two weeks:-

UNCLE SAM'S PENSIONERS.

The little office at the back of the Custom House was well filled during the business hours of jester-day and the clerks had hard work attending to the long line of pensioners that were awaiting their quarterly check. There was not quite such a crowd as jostled one another on Friday, but over clerks yesterday were for the most part ladies, although now and then one noticed some old scarred veteran that had not been able to get down on Thursday. The payments will continue throughout the coming week.

THE ALABAMA CLAIMS.

Claims by Residents of New York and

Among those who sustained losses by the dep redations of the Confederate privateers Alabama, New York and Brooklyn, who have been looking forward to a settlement of the claims by England their claims, and the following is a list of the claimants and the amounts they allege to have lost: —

Alfred Edwin and Charles E. Tilton, $4,108 75, C. C. Duncan, of Brooklyn, $3,224 87.

William C. Pisher, New York, $241 80.
